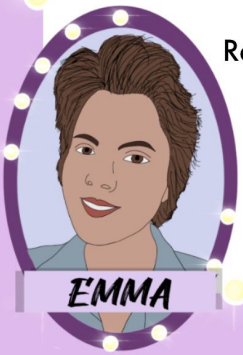
Hello from the team at Bolton Gate

Hello all, and welcome to the first summer brochure of Bolton Gate Arts, a brand new outdoor arts company operating at Bolton Gate Farm, on the outskirts of Weston Coyney.

We are working in collaboration with new artisan café Bolton Gate Farm, to bring a rich and diverse programme of high-quality artwork, theatre shows, music events, community projects and much, much more down on the farm. All set to the stunning backdrop of Park Hall, and the rolling Staffordshire Moorland Hills. We love being creative in the great outdoors and our ethos is to create opportunities for local people by transforming unorthodox spaces (the farm) into a creative, artistic hub.

We have a huge summer lined up with a variety of theatre shows for all the family, music nights, arty endeavours and our very popular makers markets which will be popping up on a regular basis. We know that Weston Coyney, Stoke-on-Trent and the whole of the Staffordshire Moorlands is brimming with creative energy and steeped in history, and we want to create a space that welcomes all and celebrates who we are and the art we love.



Read on to find out more about our packed summer schedule.
Bolton Gate Arts is waiting for you!

Sylvia vs the Fascists

Sat 16th July 2022 5:30 pm at The Stables

Sylvia vs the Fascists tells the story of Sylvia Pankhurst who, in the mid-20th century, stood up against a British establishment so afraid of socialism that it appeased the fascists on its own doorstep. A surreal, unconventional, and comic retelling of a past we hear little about, but now seem close to repeating. A story of one woman's fight-back that's as relevant today as it was back in the day. Sylvia Pankhurst. Socialist. Activist. Champion of Justice.

By Breathe Out Theatre
Starring: Emma Laidlaw
Venue: The Stables
Running time: 60 minutes
Tickets: £12 Adults, £9 Concessions.

Quentin Crisp: Naked Hope

Sat 16th July 2022 7:00 pm at The Stables

Fresh from its Off-Broadway debut and milestone 150th performance, Mark Farrelly's hugely acclaimed solo play has delighted audiences across the country.

Naked Hope depicts the legendary Quentin Crisp at two distinct phases of his extraordinary life. Firstly in the late 1960s in his filthy Chelsea flat. The second part of the play transitions the audience to New York in the 1990s. Naked Hope is a glorious, truthful and uplifting celebration of a genuinely unique human being, and of the urgent necessity to be yourself. Originally produced by Seabright Productions Ltd, and directed by Linda Marlowe, who also directed The Silence of Snow.

Written & performed by: Mark Farrelly
Directed by: Linda Marlowe
Venue: The Stables
Running Time: 75 Minutes
Tickets: £12 Adults, £9 Concessions

SUPPORT STAFFORDSHIRE

Support Staffordshire is a registered charity which empowers communities to be the best they can be. It supports communities, individuals and organisations to work collaboratively to bring about positive change in their community by actively encouraging social action.

Our services aim to:

- increase people's skills and knowledge
- harness people's drive, enthusiasm and energy
- enhance individual and family livelihoods
- build capacity in neighbourhoods & communities
- improve the relationships and resilience of organisations and individuals

We deliver in three main ways:

- Encouraging individual social action and volunteering e.g. through our brokerage offer which helps individuals find volunteering opportunities
- Supporting community and organisational development, especially through effective, influential and local, voluntary, community and social enterprise (VCSE) organisations.
- Convening across organisations and collaborating with a strong collective voice, in recognition that VCSE organisations are interdependent on a myriad of other local organisations, public bodies and local businesses with the similar aims.

By Car

We have a small amount of parking, but bare in mind, we are a farm, your car will get muddy! If our car park is full there is public parking at Park Hall car park available just 50 yards away from our entrance!

By Bus

There are a number of buses that run from Stoke train station, Hanley and other spots in Stoke. Just head towards Main Street, Western Coyney and we are a 5 minute walk from there! Check out DG Buses and The Potteries for more information.

By Train

Stoke train station is well connected with regular trains to Birmingham, Derby, Manchester and London and from there we are a 15 minute drive in a cab, or you can grab the bus!
